Outdoor Session 27th May

A few members met near the Lock Keeper's Café in Stroud for a pleasant afternoon's sketching.

Lock Keeper's Café, canal and a smile from a Stroud resident.

Kitchenalia

Quirky, quaint, colourful 'kitchenalia' that went crazily cranky'...used wrong paper so had to adapt....

Challenge 30

Hello Everyone,

Next week is National Fishing and Boating week and also Potty Training Awareness week!

...the challenge is – NO not potties or contents, but "messaging about on the river".

Sketch book challenge - June calendar

Please continue to support The Rainbow by sending photographs of your work as a jpeg to Pete Smith peter@lyonspace.co.uk. Thanks to all of you who have and are taking part in the challenges, sharing other art work carried out and interesting tidbits, and thank you Pete for editing it.

If you require advice about your artwork Roxy and Beth have both agreed to support us and are also part of this email group. It is not compulsory to do all the challenges or any of them, but if you do - anything goes regarding, media, style etc.! Let your imagination run wild! You might decide to make one challenge into a bigger project which might take weeks to complete or do as a 5-minute exercise.

If you can, take time out for your art on Thursday afternoons.

Stay safe.

Kind regards,

Lynne

Sketches

Three are A6 size, so much smaller than they appear when scanned. These are pen and ink sketches with a little pencil and crayon added.

The other one is A5 and is mainly pencil and watercolour, with a touch of ink. Advice appreciated on this one! The stones are supposed to be a wall, but it looks like a path!

I hope I shall be able to join in a meeting one Thursday soon.

Best wishes

Hilary K

Outdoor Session 10th June

The next outdoor session is planned for 2:00pm on Thursday 10th June, meeting in the car park at Box Village Hall, to make sure it's still there.

Hope to see some of you there.

Pete
