Outdoor Session 26th August

Thanks to Jose and Jeremy for inviting us to their garden for some sketching, and lovely cakes.

My fine pens have more or less given up, so I was left with a rather chunky tip (for an excuse). But it was a very pleasant way to spend the afternoon.

There were so many scenes to paint in Jose's garden at this week's plain air session. I chose a sunny spot in her courtyard to paint some pots. There was also a great view towards Roborough Fort and luckily the sun moved round so I was then able to paint while in the shade.

The tea and freshly baked cakes were most enjoyable. Thank you Jose and Jeremy.

We had a very relaxing afternoon with Jose in her garden in Castle Street, Stroud, on Thursday, finding so many different views and cameos to draw and paint. The afternoon was rounded off by tea under an arbour with vines running across, and home made shell-shaped lemon madeleines warm from the oven, made by Jose's son, Jeremy. The perfect Summer afternoon.

Re-Start at Box Village Hall

The first group art session of 2021 at Box Village Hall will be at 2:00pm on Thursday 9th September.

It promises to be a big step towards normality, and I hope to see you there. The only significant differences are that you are asked to bring your own drink, and to help yourself to a table and chair, or ask someone to set it up. There'll be a great deal of catching up to do, but if you could give some thought to the exhibition, it would be appreciated.
